The Depot Gallery is pleased to announce its first exhibition of works by recent graduates, to be held from July–August 2015. Located in The Depot Building (814 West Broad Street), The Depot Gallery spans over 3,500 square-feet in a premier location, perfect for bringing the creative works from VCUarts students, alumni and the community to the public.

We seek submissions from alumni who graduated from VCUarts at either the undergraduate or graduate level between 2004 and 2014.

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES:
- All forms of making, seeing and doing will be considered including: music, performance, visual arts and other alternative forms of expression.
- Recent work preferred.
- Collaborations and interdisciplinary perspectives are encouraged.
- Site-specific work will be accepted.
- Proposals for a work in progress or a finished work will be accepted.

PROPOSALS MUST INCLUDE:
- Name, email address, mailing address
- Department affiliation
- Graduation semester and year
- 2–3 sentences about the work
- Media, size, exhibition history and other specifications
- Special equipment needed, if applicable
- Availability, if performance is involved
